

Sienna Investment Managers passes the €30bn AuM milestone

Sienna Investment Managers' strategic acquisitions

With the acquisitions of L'Etoile Properties, and more recently of MH GA and ACOFI Gestion, Sienna Investment Managers now manages €33.7bn and comprises a full suite of asset management expertise across long-term solutions in Private Equity, Private Debt, Real Estate; and long-only through direct investments as well as multi-management, with a focus on ESG investments and on the digital sector. Its investment solutions are principally for institutional investors but also retail clients through third-party retirement and saving plans built with strategic partners.

Sienna Investment Managers branding consolidated:

The companies that have joined the group will change their name to reflect being part of Sienna Investment Managers, while specifying their areas of expertise:

- L'Etoile Properties, which manages €6.6bn (as of December 31, 2021) in real estate assets on behalf of international clients, is renamed Sienna Real Estate
- MH GA, which manages €21.4bn (as of December 31, 2021) in long-only assets on behalf of French clients through retirement and employee savings solutions, will be renamed Sienna Gestion
- ACOFI Gestion, which manages €2.5bn (as of December 31, 2021) in private debt for European clients, is renamed Sienna Private Credit
- The London-based new business unit in charge of investments in the digital sector is renamed Sienna Digital
- The historical business unit in charge of private equity is renamed Sienna Private Equity
